HR Outsourcing Services

The emergence of services/products portfolio management has forced organizations to rethink their service delivery strategy. This new thinking comes in the backdrop of studies suggesting that HR related activities generally take up to 25% of the company's time. Hence, companies are looking for solutions which can assist in consolidating segmented HR processes, maintaining quality and compliance. Supplier consolidation/rationalization is being thoroughly analyzed as a means to gain economies of scale, reduce overall cost and speedily implement new efforts to meet short term business needs.

Why Us?

Ideas HR Outsourcing practice supports a full spectrum of HR service offerings including payroll along with workforce, learning, recruitment and benefits administration. These are delivered through a combination of domain experts, proven transition methodology and quality driven operational execution, integrated with apt technology enablers.

We can help customers attain speed to market, lower operating cost, scalable and sustainable services and continuous improvement innovation.

Our HR Outsourcing provides:

- Transformation led and technology enabled Shared Service Centers
- Enhanced use of HR self-service in client organizations
- HR portfolio
- Transformational engagements
- Language services

IIMPL HR Outsourcing solutions are:

- Shared services: Local, regional and offshore services coupled with captive local and remote shared services centers.
- HR Transformation: Internal transformations, broad HR outsourcing or point solution outsourcing reduce costs and enable resources to focus on strategy and business customers, improving service, and enhancing internal customer experience

Operational excellence through Technology Enablers

Our propriety technology platform IHRS gives multi-level visibility to the processes and integrates the outsourced services seamlessly with customer's internal business processes. We help enhance operational efficiency, increase visibility and control, improve business agility and process redesign, and build in automation.

Training

We provide training on Modules designed as per our Clients Training Need Identified. These modules are delivered as per the suitability of the clients. We charge the training fees depending on the Faculty chosen and duration of the training program.
